Hon. Xavier Luc Duval, the winners and BDO CEO, Yacoob Ramtoola

BDO Chief Executive Officer, Yacoob Ramtoola

The Chief Executive Officer, Yacoob Ramtoola, emphasizes that this award aims at giving recognition to companies which have been actively engaged in Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives linked to education and sport, environment, health or socio-economic development. The BDO CSR Awards is a first-of-its-kind in Mauritius and in the BDO network around the world. Through this award, BDO wishes to showcase laudable CSR initiatives and provide a platform for the public and private sector, jury members and all stakeholders to have discussions around sustainable and effective CSR strategies.

As financial experts, BDO can help local companies to benefit from their social investment by promoting their contribution to CSR activities.

This award has been an opportunity to identify those companies that have best practices in managing their funds for social initiatives and have shown a unique approach in their corporate responsibility policy.
